Study Connections Guide

A question-based reading guide to all 82 Digital Studies

Each study answers a defined question. This companion explains what a connected study adds, why that connection helps, and where to read next. Follow the linked titles to preview each study on the website.

Israel, the Body, and covenant identity

Who receives a promise, and what does shared blessing establish? Studies 1, 4, 9, 12, 72, 13, 17, 71, 73, 21, 35, 36, 39, 78, 40, 56, 41, 50, 51, 52, 53, 82, 54, 75, 80, 55, 60.

Acts, apostolic commissions, and present obligation

Which actions and commands in Acts govern the Body today? Studies 2, 6, 11, 14, 18, 66, 19, 20, 65, 25, 34, 38, 42, 43, 59.

Life and standing in Christ

How does the Body’s position in Christ shape life now? Studies 5, 16, 22, 81, 30, 37, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 76, 77, 57.

Prophecy and future events

Which audiences and periods do prophetic passages name? Studies 3, 7, 8, 10, 74, 23, 61, 26, 27, 64, 29, 49, 69.

Difficult passages and interpretive systems

How do we keep an argument’s own context and question intact? Studies 15, 62, 70, 63, 24, 28, 67, 32, 58.

Judgment and reward

How do different judgments and reward images relate? Studies 31, 33, 68, 79.

Study numbers identify catalog entries; they do not prescribe a single reading sequence. Every study remains available individually.

Israel, the Body, and covenant identity

Who receives a promise, and what does shared blessing establish?

Study 1 — The Bride of Christ

What this study answers. Study 1 tests where Scripture places bridal language and what Paul's marriage imagery establishes for the Body of Christ.

- Study 12 — The New Covenant — Read Jeremiah's New Covenant promise with its named recipients in view; this keeps the prophetic marriage theme and covenant promise in their own setting.
- Study 4 — Israel and the Body of Christ — Use the larger Israel and Body comparison to see why a shared image or figure does not by itself assign both groups the same corporate identity.
- Study 64 — The Wedding and the Wedding Supper — Read Revelation 19:6–10 on its own terms: the marriage of the Lamb, the wife made ready, and the company called to the supper; this study establishes to whom the bridal identity belongs.
- Prophetic Identity Commentary Series, Volume 1 — The Bride Identity in Prophecy — Argues that the wife of the LORD in the prophets and the Lamb's wife in Revelation are one wife, Israel, and that the Body is not the Bride; Study 1 traces the bridal imagery passage by passage and records what each text says about who is wed.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 1 — Israel & the Body — Argues that Israel's prophetic program and the Body's Mystery program ran side by side; Study 1 sets out the bridal passages and tests the proposed identification of the Body as the Bride without arguing beyond the text.

Study 4 — Israel and the Body of Christ

What this study answers. Study 4 establishes the corporate distinction between Israel and the Body of Christ across covenants, callings, promises, and destinies.

- Study 36 — Jews, Gentiles, and the Church of God — Apply that distinction to Paul's Jews, Gentiles, and Church of God categories; it clarifies how Jewish or Gentile origin relates to membership in one Body.
- Study 39 — The Church's Relationship to Israel's Scriptures — Carry the distinction into Bible reading: learn from Israel's Scriptures while keeping the recipients of its commands and national promises in view.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 1 — Israel & the Body — Sets Israel's prophetic program beside the Body's Mystery program and answers eight modern writers; Study 4 sets out the distinctions in origin, identity, covenant, calling and destiny as the texts state them, without answering opponents.
- Prophetic Identity Commentary Series, Volume 5 — The Eschatological Community — Reads the New Jerusalem as Israel's city of hope and sets out the Body's separate destination in the heavenly places; Study 4 records the distinctions in destiny alongside those of identity and covenant without arguing a position.

Study 9 — The Remnant

What this study answers. Study 9 follows the believing remnant within Israel, including Paul's argument in Romans 11.

- Study 21 — Israel's Judicial Blinding — Read corporate judicial blinding alongside the remnant's continued existence. This explains how Israel can face national hardening without every Israelite being hardened.
- Study 23 — The 144,000 — Examine Revelation's numbered tribal company as a particular group; it prevents the 144,000 from being equated with every faithful Israelite in every period.
- Study 50 — Election — See the remnant's election of grace set alongside Israel's national election and the Body's election in Christ — this study's own ground within the larger pattern Study 50 traces.
- Prophetic Identity Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Remnant — Argues that the remnant of the prophets and of Revelation is the preserved believing portion of Israel and that the Body is not the remnant; Study 9 follows the remnant through the passages and reports each text without arguing beyond it.
- Prophetic Identity Commentary Series, Volume 4 — The Olive Tree — Reads Romans 11's olive tree as Israel's own tree, with the Gentiles sharing its root as participants; Study 9 follows the remnant in Romans 11 among other texts, without arguing a position.
- Parable Study — The Barren Fig Tree and the Generation's Response — The Barren Fig Tree and the Generation's Response pictures the reprieve this remnant occupies within its own generation. Passage: Luke 13:6–9; Matthew 11:16–19; Luke 7:31–35.

Study 12 — The New Covenant

What this study answers. Study 12 identifies the New Covenant's named recipients and promises in Jeremiah 31 and Ezekiel 36.

- Study 39 — The Church's Relationship to Israel's Scriptures — Work through how the Body may learn from a covenant addressed to Israel and Judah without acquiring its national identity or every covenant obligation.
- Study 4 — Israel and the Body of Christ — Place the covenant within the wider distinction between Israel and the Body of Christ; this clarifies why Christ's saving work and the covenant's named parties are separate questions.
- Study 53 — Redemption — Distinguish this covenant's own ratifying blood from the price that redemption itself names, so that a shared use of "blood" does not collapse two distinct functions into one.
- Prophetic Identity Commentary Series, Volume 3 — The New Covenant — Argues that the new covenant is promised to Israel, ratified by Christ's blood and to be fulfilled in the nation, with the Body having the blood without being the covenant party; Study 12 examines the promise as the texts state it.

Study 72 — The Lord's Supper

What this study answers. Study 72 asks what the passages say the Supper is, what Paul delivered to the Corinthians, and what the cup carries and the Body does when it takes the cup.

- Study 12 — The New Covenant — Read the New Covenant as a covenant, with its named parties and promises; this study reads only the cup's wording and the covenant text it points to.
- Study 65 — Acts 2:42: The Apostles' Doctrine — Read what the Twelve's doctrine consisted of; this study notes the breaking of bread in that verse only as a recorded fact.
- Study 53 — Redemption — Follow redemption across Scripture and the settings in which it is named; this study reads the blood only as the cup names it.
- Prophetic Identity Commentary Series, Volume 3 — The New Covenant — Argues that the new covenant is promised to Israel, was ratified by Christ's blood and will be fulfilled in the nation, the Body having the blood without being the party; Study 72 records what each account of the Supper says of the cup.
- Typology Commentary Series, Volume 4 — Exodus Typology — Argues that the Exodus is Israel's founding redemption and that Christ is named as the Passover and the Lamb; Study 72 reads Luke 22, Matthew 26 and 1 Corinthians 11, recording what each account says.

Study 13 — The Olive Tree and the Body of Christ

What this study answers. Study 13 interprets Paul's olive-tree image in Romans 11 and the participation of Gentiles in the patriarchal root's blessing.

- Study 17 — The Abrahamic Covenant — Return to the covenant's actual terms in Genesis; those promises explain the root without turning all beneficiaries into Israel or transferring the land promise.
- Study 40 — Who Is Abraham's Seed? — Follow Paul's several uses of Abraham's seed in Romans and Galatians; this tests exactly what faith, blessing, and heirship grant before drawing identity conclusions.
- Study 9 — The Remnant — Identify the believing Israelite remnant within Romans 11; it clarifies whom Paul means among the natural branches.
- Prophetic Identity Commentary Series, Volume 4 — The Olive Tree — Reads Paul's olive tree in Romans 11 as Israel's own tree and argues Gentiles share its root as participants without becoming Israel; Study 13 interprets the root, natural and wild branches by reporting the passage's own wording.
- Doctrinal Packet — Romans — The Doctrinal Packet on Romans interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 13 reads the olive tree of Romans 11.

Study 17 — The Abrahamic Covenant

What this study answers. Study 17 establishes the Abrahamic covenant's line, nation, land, and blessing in its Genesis setting.

- Study 40 — Who Is Abraham's Seed? — Trace Paul's uses of Abraham and his seed in Romans and Galatians; this shows which benefits he extends to believers and which covenant terms he does not reassign.
- Study 13 — The Olive Tree and the Body of Christ — Read Romans 11's olive-tree image against that covenant background; it clarifies how Gentiles share in patriarchal blessing without becoming Israel.
- Study 39 — The Church's Relationship to Israel's Scriptures — Apply a method for learning from Genesis while preserving the original recipients of national and land promises.
- Covenantal Commentary Series, Volume 1 — The Abrahamic Covenant — Reads the covenant God swore to Abraham from Genesis to Paul, sets out its terms and oath, and answers seven modern writers; Study 17 establishes ratification, line, land, nation and blessing as Genesis states them, without answering opponents.
- Covenantal Commentary Series, Volume 3 — Inheritance — Reads what Abraham's line was given to possess and shows who holds which inheritance; Study 17 records the land and nation promises in Genesis without arguing who holds them.
- Doctrinal Packet — Genesis — The Doctrinal Packet on Genesis interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 17 follows the Abrahamic covenant.

Study 71 — The Genealogies of Jesus

What this study answers. Study 71 asks what each genealogy of Jesus claims for him, in Matthew 1:1–17 and Luke 3:23–38, and why Israel's Messiah must come through that descent.

- Study 63 — Isaiah 7:13–16 — Read Isaiah's sign to the house of David and how Matthew uses it; this study reads Matthew's and Luke's lists and does not take up that sign.
- Study 17 — The Abrahamic Covenant — Follow God's promises to Abraham across Scripture; this study takes only the words of descent in the promises, as they bear on a register.
- Study 12 — The New Covenant — Read the New Covenant as a covenant; this study reads Jeremiah 22:24–30 and does not enter that covenant.
- Covenantal Commentary Series, Volume 5 — The Davidic Covenant — Reads the promise God swore to David, the throne and the kingdom, and answers modern writers; Study 71 reads the names and promises in Matthew 1:1–17 and Luke 3:23–38 without arguing a position beyond the text.
- Covenantal Commentary Series, Volume 2 — Abraham's Seed — Reads the word "seed" from Genesis to Paul and argues who Abraham's seed are and are not; Study 71 records what each genealogy claims for Jesus by its names and setting, without arguing that question.

Study 73 — The Davidic Covenant

What this study answers. Study 73 asks what God promised David in 2 Samuel 7, to whom the promise was made, and what the Psalms, the prophets, and the New Testament passages say about it.

- Study 17 — The Abrahamic Covenant — Follow God's promises to Abraham across Scripture; this study touches Abraham only where 2 Samuel 7 echoes that promise.
- Study 12 — The New Covenant — Read the New Covenant as a covenant, with its named parties and promises; this study reads only the Davidic content, including the echo in Jeremiah 33.
- Study 71 — The Genealogies of Jesus — Read Matthew's and Luke's lists as records; this study does not handle the lists of names.
- Covenantal Commentary Series, Volume 5 — The Davidic Covenant — Reads the promise God swore to David, the throne and the kingdom, and answers five modern writers; Study 73 follows 2 Samuel 7 through the Psalms and prophets and reports how the New Testament quotes it.
- Typology Commentary Series, Volume 5 — Kingdom Typology — Argues that David and Solomon stand in order as a pattern of the coming King and that Christ is named as Son of David; Study 73 records the covenant text and its quotations without arguing a typological pattern.

Study 21 — Israel's Judicial Blinding

What this study answers. Study 21 traces Israel's corporate judicial blinding in Romans 11 and Acts 28.

- Study 9 — The Remnant — Follow the believing remnant through the same national history; its existence explains why corporate hardening does not erase every Israelite's faith.
- Study 13 — The Olive Tree and the Body of Christ — Read Paul's natural branches, wild branch, and future reception in Romans 11; the olive-tree illustration makes the consequences and limits of hardening more precise.
- Study 63 — Isaiah 7:13–16 — Read the sign given to the house of David in the chapter after Isaiah 6; this study traces the hardening announced just before it.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 5 — Acts 28 — Argues that Acts 28:25–28 reports the national suspension of Israel's program, reading the close of Acts at Rome; Study 21 traces Isaiah's blinding through the Gospels, Romans 11 and Acts 28 as the texts state it, without arguing beyond them.
- Prophetic Identity Commentary Series, Volume 4 — The Olive Tree — Argues that Paul's olive tree in Romans 11 is Israel's own tree, which Gentiles share as participants without becoming Israel; Study 21 follows the hardening of Romans 11 within the wider blinding texts, without arguing a position beyond the text.
- Parable Study — The Wicked Tenants — Three parables narrate, in story form, the rejection this study explains doctrinally. Passage: Matthew 21:33–46; Mark 12; Luke 20.
- Parable Study — The Wedding Banquet — Passage: Matthew 22:1–14.
- Parable Study — The Great Banquet — Passage: Luke 14:15–24.

Study 35 — Who Is the Israel of God?

What this study answers. Study 35 tests the expressions ‘Israel of God’ and ‘a Jew inwardly’ and the later label ‘spiritual Israel’ in context.

- Study 4 — Israel and the Body of Christ — Use the broader Israel and Body distinction to evaluate whether a disputed expression actually changes either group’s corporate identity.
- Study 36 — Jews, Gentiles, and the Church of God — Examine Paul’s categories in 1 Corinthians 10:32; they give a separate check on whether Jewish origin, Gentile origin, and Church membership are being conflated.
- Study 40 — Who Is Abraham’s Seed? — Test whether faith in Christ makes someone Israelite; Paul’s seed language helps answer an identity inference often brought to Galatians 6:16.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 1 — Israel & the Body — Sets Israel’s prophetic program beside the Body’s Mystery program, with Galatians 6:16 among the passages answered; Study 35 reports Galatians 6:16 and Romans 2:28–29 as written, without arguing a position beyond the text.
- Covenantal Commentary Series, Volume 2 — Abraham’s Seed — Reads the word “seed” from Genesis to Paul and shows who the seed is and is not, including Galatians 6:16 and Romans 2:28–29; Study 35 tests the identity label “Israel” in those verses without arguing beyond the text.

Study 36 — Jews, Gentiles, and the Church of God

What this study answers. Study 36 reads Jews, Gentiles, and the Church of God in 1 Corinthians 10:32 and distinguishes historical origin from standing in one Body.

- Study 4 — Israel and the Body of Christ — Set these three categories within the broader corporate distinction between Israel and the Body; this explains why origin and present membership answer different questions.
- Study 35 — Who Is the Israel of God? — Test contested labels such as ‘Israel of God’ against Paul’s categories instead of using one debated phrase to erase distinctions elsewhere.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 1 — Israel & the Body — Sets Israel’s prophetic program beside the Body’s Mystery program, answering eight modern writers on the two identities; Study 36 reports the three names of 1 Corinthians 10:32 as written, without arguing a position beyond the text.
- Doctrinal Packet — 1 Corinthians — The Doctrinal Packet on 1 Corinthians interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 36 reads Jews, Gentiles and the Church of God.

Study 39 — The Church's Relationship to Israel's Scriptures

What this study answers. Study 39 gives a method for learning from Israel's Scriptures while retaining their original audience and covenant setting.

- Study 17 — The Abrahamic Covenant — Practice the method on the Abrahamic covenant in Genesis: identify its line, national promises, and blessing before claiming present application.
- Study 40 — Who Is Abraham's Seed? — See how Paul uses that history in Romans and Galatians; his specific arguments provide a worked example of learning from Israel's Scriptures without transferring Israelite identity.
- Study 38 — Why Acts Is Not a Universal Experience Manual — Apply related audience and authority questions to events narrated in Acts, where the issue is whether an action creates a present obligation.

Study 78 — The Sabbath and Its Meanings

What this study answers. Study 78 asks what each passage that names the Sabbath says, to whom it speaks, and what it leaves unsaid, reading the passages in their own settings.

- Study 27 — Israel's Seven Appointed Feasts — Read the weekly Sabbath inside Leviticus 23; this study reads the Sabbath across every passage that names it.
- Study 39 — The Church's Relationship to Israel's Scriptures — Read a method that uses the Sabbath as one sample; this study takes up the Sabbath passages themselves.
- Study 59 — The Law's Jurisdiction and the Body of Christ — Read the Law's jurisdiction; this study does not take up that question.

Study 40 — Who IsAbraham's Seed?

What this study answers. Study 40 tests what Paul means by Abraham's seed, faith, blessing, and heirship in Romans and Galatians.

- Study 17 — The Abrahamic Covenant — Begin with the covenant's original terms in Genesis; its selected line, land, nation, and blessing set the baseline for evaluating Paul's later claims.
- Study 13 — The Olive Tree and the Body of Christ — Compare Romans 11's olive-tree image with Paul's seed language; the comparison clarifies why sharing patriarchal blessing need not assign Israelite identity.
- Study 39 — The Church's Relationship to Israel's Scriptures — Use the broader reading method for Israel's Scriptures to see why Paul's application of Abraham's history must be established passage by passage.
- Covenantal Commentary Series, Volume 2 — Abraham's Seed — Reads the word "seed" from Genesis to Paul and answers seven modern writers on who Abraham's seed are; Study 40 follows Paul's uses of seed in Romans and Galatians, without arguing a position beyond the text.

Study 56 — Inheritance

What this study answers. Study 56 identifies the giver, heir, promised object, basis, and timing in inheritance texts. It compares Israel's named land promise with Paul's account of heirship in Christ and Peter's inheritance reserved in heaven, without treating a shared word as a shared possession.

- Study 5 — The Heavenly Calling — Place Paul's inheritance language within the Body's wider heavenly identity, blessings, citizenship, and hope; then return to Study 56 for the narrower question of what an heir receives.
- Study 17 — The Abrahamic Covenant — Start with Genesis's named line, land, and blessing so a later shared word does not erase the original grant or its recipients.
- Study 40 — Who Is Abraham's Seed? — Follow Paul's argument about seed and promise in Romans and Galatians before comparing heirship with Ephesians, Colossians, and 1 Peter.
- Study 52 — Sonship and Adoption — Establish how the believer receives sonship, then distinguish that status from the further question of the inheritance named for the heir.
- Study 57 — The Eternal Purpose of God — Read Ephesians 1–3 on purpose and headship after Study 56 identifies the heirs and objects each inheritance passage names; one comprehensive purpose does not silently transfer Israel's land grant.
- Covenantal Commentary Series, Volume 3 — Inheritance — Argues who holds which inheritance, reading what Abraham's line was given to possess and the land promise; Study 56 identifies giver, heir, object, basis and timing in each inheritance text without arguing a position beyond the text.

Study 41 — Kingdom of God or Kingdom of Heaven?

What this study answers. Study 41 tests whether the kingdom of heaven and the kingdom of God are different kingdoms and identifies whose kingdom each text describes.

- Study 2 — The Gospel of the Kingdom — Study the Kingdom message itself—its audience, promises, and required response—after this study establishes what the two kingdom phrases name.
- Study 5 — The Heavenly Calling — Develop the Body's heavenly identity, position, and hope, which this study distinguishes from Israel's earthly kingdom inheritance.
- Study 21 — Israel's Judicial Blinding — Examine the Acts 28 suspension that frames this study's reading of Paul's final kingdom preaching in Acts 28:31.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 3 — The Kingdom Program — Argues the kingdom promised to Israel runs from the Law and the Prophets through the Gospels, Acts and Revelation; Study 41 compares the Gospel parallels and Daniel's kingdom from heaven, reporting the phrases as written without arguing a position beyond the text.
- Gospel Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Lord's Ministry to Israel — Argues that the Lord's ministry before the Cross, and that of the Twelve, was to the lost sheep of the house of Israel; Study 41 compares the phrases "kingdom of God" and "kingdom of heaven" across the Gospel parallels and reports them as written.
- Parable Study — The Wise and Foolish Builders — Two parables turn on the very question this study tests. Passage: Matthew 7:24–27; Luke 6:47–49.
- Parable Study — The Narrow Door — Passage: Luke 13:22–30.

Study 50 — Election

What this study answers. Study 50 traces the two elections Scripture names — Israel's national election and the Body's election in Christ — and the discipline that keeps a shared word from becoming a shared doctrine.

- Study 9 — The Remnant — Compare the corporate, national election traced here with the narrower "election of grace" this study locates within it — an individual outworking, not a separate election.
- Study 21 — Israel's Judicial Blinding — See the national judicial suspension examined in full — the present, corporate condition this study calls on to show why Israel's unbelief never revokes her ongoing election.
- Study 4 — Israel and the Body of Christ — Read the broad Israel–Body distinction in origin, covenant, and destiny that this study's narrower question about election depends on throughout.
- Prophetic Identity Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Remnant — Argues the remnant of the prophets and of Revelation is the preserved believing portion of Israel; Study 50 distinguishes the kinds of election Scripture names, recording each passage's audience without arguing a position beyond the text.

Study 51 — Circumcision

What this study answers. Study 51 traces the two circumcisions Scripture names — Israel's fleshly covenant sign and the Body's circumcision of Christ — and the discipline that keeps a shared word from becoming a shared doctrine.

- Study 17 — The Abrahamic Covenant — See the covenant that circumcision was given to seal in Genesis 17, and the broader promise this study's narrower sign belongs to.
- Study 19 — The Jerusalem Council — Examine in full the council this study calls on as its test case for whether circumcision could be required of Gentile believers.
- Study 42 — One Baptism — Compare the Body's other non-fleshly, in-Christ reality, read alongside Colossians 2:11–13's own pairing of circumcision and baptism as the same union with Christ.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 4 — Cornelius and the Council — Argues one question reached Jerusalem in two forms and was answered by four speakers for four parts; Study 51 traces circumcision from the Abrahamic sign through the Jerusalem Council to Colossians 2, reporting the text as written.
- Covenantal Commentary Series, Volume 1 — The Abrahamic Covenant — Argues from the covenant God swore to Abraham, setting out its terms, its oath and what was promised to whom; Study 51 traces circumcision as that covenant's sign and the circumcision of Christ, without arguing a position beyond the text.

Study 52 — Sonship and Adoption

What this study answers. Study 52 traces the two sonships Scripture names by adoption — Israel's national sonship claimed at the exodus and named in Romans 9:4, and the Body's own adoption in Christ — and the discipline that keeps a shared word from becoming a shared doctrine.

- Study 50 — Election — See the antecedent choosing this study's placing into sonship presupposes, and how Israel's national election and the Body's election in Christ likewise remain two distinct realities under one shared word.
- Study 5 — The Heavenly Calling — Read the wider heavenly calling this study's Ephesians 1 adoption belongs to — the fuller scope of blessings, citizenship, and hope the Body possesses in Christ.
- Study 4 — Israel and the Body of Christ — Review the broad distinction in origin, identity, covenant, calling, and destiny that this study's narrower adoption contrast depends on throughout.

Study 53 — Redemption

What this study answers. Study 53 traces the two redemptions Scripture names — Israel's historical and future national deliverance and the Body's own redemption in Christ — and the discipline of company, price, and timing that keeps a shared word from becoming a shared doctrine.

- Study 52 — Sonship and Adoption — See the legal placing into sonship that this study's own Galatians 4:4–5 redemption secures, a distinct question from the price and bondage redemption itself names.
- Study 46 — Secure in Christ — Read the fuller argument for the believer's settled security that this study's own Ephesians 1:13–14 reference touches only for what it says about redemption's still-future stage.
- Study 12 — The New Covenant — Examine the New Covenant's own ratifying blood in its own setting, distinguished in this study from the price that redemption itself names.
- Study 55 — Reconciled to God — Follow the distinct question of former enmity and peace with God after identifying redemption’s price.
- Typology Commentary Series, Volume 4 — Exodus Typology — Argues the Exodus is Israel’s founding redemption and the pattern of her hope, with Christ named as the Passover and the Lamb; Study 53 traces Scripture’s statements of redemption in their own settings without arguing beyond the text.
- Pauline Doctrine Series, Volume 2 — The Cross in Paul’s Letters — Argues that each of Paul’s passages on the Cross answers a different problem, among them the blood and the price paid; Study 53 traces Scripture’s statements of redemption in their own settings without arguing beyond the text.

Study 82 — The Kinsman-Redeemer

What this study answers. Study 82 asks what the law of the kinsman requires of the one who redeems, and where Scripture says each requirement was met.

- Study 53 — Redemption — Follow what is redeemed, at what price and for which company across Scripture, a wider question than the one this study asks about the person who redeems.
- Study 52 — Sonship and Adoption — Read the legal standing Galatians 4:4–5 describes, which this study leaves aside while it reads what the law required of a redeemer.
- Study 71 — The Genealogies of Jesus — Read the two genealogies and their claims for Jesus; this study reads Ruth for the steps of the redeemer and does not follow the line.

Study 54 — Justification

What this study answers. Study 54 traces justification as a legal verdict — its ground in Christ's finished work for the Body, its means by faith alone, and Abraham's belief counted for righteousness before the law — against Israel's own stumbling pursuit of a law-righteousness.

- Study 53 — Redemption — Trace the price redemption itself names in Romans 3:24, a distinct question from the verdict that price secures.
- Study 15 — Faith and Works in James and Paul — Read James 2 and Romans 4 each within its own stated audience, distinguishing a living faith's proof from justification's own ground.
- Study 40 — Who Is Abraham's Seed? — Follow what Paul means by Abraham's seed, faith, and heirship across Romans and Galatians, a distinct question from Abraham's own justification by faith.
- Study 55 — Reconciled to God — Follow the distinct question of former enmity and peace with God after identifying justification’s verdict.
- Covenantal Commentary Series, Volume 1 — The Abrahamic Covenant — Argues from the covenant God swore to Abraham and reads Romans 4 as a pattern of faith; Study 54 traces justification as a declared verdict from Genesis 15:6 to Paul’s letters, recording the passages without arguing beyond the text.
- Pauline Doctrine Series, Volume 2 — The Cross in Paul’s Letters — Argues what Paul’s passages on the Cross each say it did, among them the propitiation of Romans 3 and the delivering for our offences of Romans 4:25; Study 54 traces justification as a declared verdict, recording the passages without arguing beyond the text.
- Parable Study — The Pharisee and the Tax Collector — The Pharisee and the Tax Collector uses justification language in its own Kingdom setting, distinct from the justification this study traces in Paul. Read the parable to see the word doing different work in a different setting. Passage: Luke 18:9–14.
- Doctrinal Packet — Romans — The Doctrinal Packet on Romans interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 54 traces justification.

Study 75 — Faith Before the Cross

What this study answers. Study 75 asks what Abraham, Israel, the prophets, Hebrews 11, and the disciples are each said to have believed before the Cross, and what had been said to them, reading each passage as written.

- Study 54 — Justification — Trace justification as a legal verdict and the means by which it is received; this study does not take up that verdict and reads only passages before the Cross.
- Study 15 — Faith and Works in James and Paul — Read James 2 and Romans 4 each within its own audience; this study does not compare the two writers.
- Study 43 — The Gospel of the Grace of God — Read Paul's gospel as the gospel of the grace of God; this study does not restate it.
- Covenantal Commentary Series, Volume 1 — The Abrahamic Covenant — Reads the covenant God swore to Abraham from Genesis to Paul and sets out its terms and oath; Study 75 records what Abraham and others are said to have believed before the Cross, each in its own setting.
- Gospel Commentary Series, Volume 4 — What the Twelve Understood — Argues that the Cross was hid from the Twelve before it was opened to them; Study 75 records what the disciples and earlier believers are said to have believed, passage by passage, without arguing a position beyond the text.

Study 80 — The Lamb Foreordained

What this study answers. Study 80 asks what each use of "the foundation of the world" says, with which governing word, and what it leaves unsaid, reading 1 Peter 1:18–21, Revelation 13:8 and the Lamb passages as written.

- Study 68 — The Book of Life — Read the passages about a book of names; this study reads the phrase "the foundation of the world" wherever it stands.
- Study 57 — The Eternal Purpose of God — Treat the eternal purpose and the Mystery; this study reports Ephesians 1:4 as written and leaves that question to it.
- Study 75 — Faith Before the Cross — Trace what earlier believers believed; this study adds nothing to it from 1 Peter 1:20.
- Typology Commentary Series, Volume 4 — Exodus Typology — Argues that the Exodus is Israel's founding redemption and that Christ is named as the Passover, the Lamb and the rock; Study 80 reports each use of "the foundation of the world" and the Lamb passages as written.
- Parable Study — The Sheep and the Goats — The Sheep and the Goats reads Matthew 25:31–46, whose verse 34 speaks of a kingdom prepared "from the foundation of the world," one of the uses this study sets side by side. Read the parable for the whole scene; Study 80 reads the phrase with its governing word. Passage: Matthew 25:31–46.

Study 55 — Reconciled to God

What this study answers. Study 55 follows Paul's account of former enmity, God's reconciling work in Christ, peace received, and the appeal entrusted to ambassadors. It reads Romans 5, 2 Corinthians 5, Ephesians 2, and Colossians 1 without turning the breadth of the message into universal personal reception.

- Study 53 — Redemption — Identify the bondage and price named by redemption before asking the different relational question of what peace Christ's work establishes.
- Study 54 — Justification — Establish the verdict received by faith in Romans 3–5; then see why Romans 5:1 calls peace with God its present result.
- Study 37 — What Does Paul Mean by "New Creation"? — Read 2 Corinthians 5:17 in its own setting so the following reconciliation passage is connected to, but not substituted for, Paul's new-creation claim.
- Study 52 — Sonship and Adoption — Compare reconciliation's answer to enmity and peace with adoption's distinct question of sonship and inheritance.

Study 60 — The Churches Named in Scripture

What this study answers. Study 60 tests each occurrence of church by its speaker, audience, setting, commission, and stated corporate teaching. It follows Matthew, Acts, Saul's persecution, local congregations, and Paul's explicit one Body texts without making the word alone decide identity.

- Study 4 — Israel and the Body of Christ — Establish the larger corporate distinction; Study 60 then asks what a specific passage actually identifies about its assembly.
- Study 36 — Jews, Gentiles, and the Church of God — Read 1 Corinthians 10:32's threefold designation in its practical context before surveying church language across other passages.
- Study 38 — Why Acts Is Not a Universal Experience Manual — After identifying the assembly in an Acts event, test whether the narrated action establishes present obligation.
- Study 26 — The Seven Churches of Revelation — Examine those seven assemblies and their prophetic setting in detail; Study 60 only marks the boundary of its survey.

Acts, apostolic commissions, and present obligation

Which actions and commands in Acts govern the Body today?

Study 2 — The Gospel of the Kingdom

What this study answers. Study 2 establishes the Kingdom message: to whom it was announced, what it promised, and how its hearers were called to respond.

- Study 20 — Understanding Acts 2:38 — Examine Peter's actual response to Israel at Pentecost, including repentance, baptism, remission, and the promised Spirit. The Kingdom setting clarifies why Acts 2:38 should be read in its own audience and prophetic setting.
- Study 18 — Peter and Paul: Distinct Apostolic Commissions — Compare Peter's and Paul's commissions during the Acts overlap. Their distinct assignments explain why Peter's Kingdom proclamation and Paul's ministry must be compared without merging them.
- Study 41 — Kingdom of God or Kingdom of Heaven? — Settle what the Gospels mean by "kingdom of heaven" and "kingdom of God" before studying the Kingdom message; the two phrases name the one kingdom promised to Israel.
- Gospel Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Lord's Ministry to Israel — Argues that the Lord's ministry before the Cross was to the lost sheep of the house of Israel; Study 2 defines the Kingdom announcement, its audience and promised setting, and reports the text without arguing a position beyond it.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 3 — The Kingdom Program — Argues that the kingdom promised to Israel runs from the Law and the Prophets through the Gospels, Acts and Revelation; Study 2 records the Kingdom message and its audience as the texts state them.
- Parable Study — The Sower and the Soils — The Sower and the Soils narrates the very announcement this study traces — read it to see the four responses the Kingdom message actually received. Passage: Matthew 13:1–23; Mark 4; Luke 8.

Study 6 — The Mystery Revealed Through Paul

What this study answers. Study 6 defines the previously hidden Mystery revealed through Paul and identifies its content.

- Study 11 — The Beginning of the Body of Christ — Ask when the Body of Christ began; this lets you relate the revelation's content to the beginning of the corporate people it concerns.
- Study 14 — Acts 9 and the Beginning of Mystery — Read Paul's Acts 9 calling in the narrative while Peter's ministry continues; this locates the Mystery commission within the period when both programs operated concurrently.
- Study 57 — The Eternal Purpose of God — After tracing what was hidden and revealed through Paul, read how Ephesians 3:10–11 connects that disclosure to the Church's present witness of God's wisdom.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Mystery Program — Reads every place the word mystery stands and argues that the secret Paul names was hid in God and revealed through him; Study 6 defines the previously hidden Mystery and records its revealed content without arguing beyond the text.

Study 11 — The Beginning of the Body of Christ

What this study answers. Study 11 asks when the Body of Christ began in relation to Paul's calling and the Mystery.

- Study 14 — Acts 9 and the Beginning of Mystery — Examine the Acts 9 event itself and what continues afterward; this gives the narrative evidence for the timing proposed here.
- Study 6 — The Mystery Revealed Through Paul — Identify what the Mystery revealed through Paul actually contains; that content helps explain why the Body is distinct rather than merely assigning it a starting date.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 3 — Paul Called and Sent — Argues that Paul's commission is one in the three Damascus road accounts and that Antioch sends rather than commissions; Study 11 examines the Body's beginning in relation to Paul's calling and records the texts without arguing beyond them.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Mystery Program — Argues that the secret Paul names was hid in God, revealed through him, and began at Acts 9; Study 11 sets out the evidence for the Body's beginning as the texts give it.
- Doctrinal Packet — Acts — The Doctrinal Packet on Acts interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 11 reads why the Body begins with Paul at Acts 9.

Study 14 — Acts 9 and the Beginning of Mystery

What this study answers. Study 14 focuses on Paul's Acts 9 calling as the beginning of his distinct Mystery commission while Peter's prophetic ministry continues.

- Study 11 — The Beginning of the Body of Christ — Develop the related timing question of the Body's beginning from the doctrinal evidence, rather than assuming that every Acts 9 detail answers it by itself.
- Study 18 — Peter and Paul: Distinct Apostolic Commissions — Follow the two apostolic commissions after Paul's call; their concurrent ministries show why the new commission did not end Peter's earlier assignment.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 3 — Paul Called and Sent — Reads the Damascus road accounts in Acts 9, 22 and 26 with the sending from Antioch and argues the commission is one; Study 14 reads Paul's call as a narrative marker and records the text without arguing a position.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Mystery Program — Argues that the Mystery was revealed through Paul and began at Acts 9; Study 14 reads the Acts 9 call and the distinct apostleships as the narrative reports them.
- Doctrinal Packet — Acts — The Doctrinal Packet on Acts interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 14 reads Acts 9 and the beginning of the Mystery.

Study 18 — Peter and Paul: Distinct Apostolic Commissions

What this study answers. Study 18 compares Peter's and Paul's audiences, commissions, and ministries during the Acts overlap.

- Study 19 — The Jerusalem Council — Watch those distinct ministries meet at the Jerusalem Council. The specific circumcision dispute and the council's recognition of Gentile ministry put the apostolic comparison into an actual case.
- Study 14 — Acts 9 and the Beginning of Mystery — Trace Paul's earlier Acts 9 calling; it explains where the distinct commission in this comparison begins while Peter's line continues.
- Study 65 — Acts 2:42 — Ask what "the apostles' doctrine" of Acts 2:42 contained and to whom it belonged; this study compares the two commissions across the book.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 3 — Paul Called and Sent — Argues that Paul's commission is one in the Damascus road accounts and that Antioch sends and does not commission; Study 18 compares the apostles' audiences, authority and concurrent ministries as the texts report them.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 4 — Cornelius and the Council — Argues that one question reached Jerusalem in two forms and was answered by four speakers for four parts; Study 18 compares Peter's and Paul's commissions without arguing beyond the text.
- Doctrinal Packet — Acts — The Doctrinal Packet on Acts interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 18 sets Peter's and Paul's apostolic commissions side by side.

Study 66 — Matthew 28:18–20

What this study answers. Study 66 asks what Jesus assigned to the eleven disciples in Matthew 28:18–20, by what wording, and to whom.

- Study 18 — Peter and Paul: Distinct Apostolic Commissions — Compare the two apostolic commissions across the book; this study reads the wording of the Eleven's commission itself.
- Study 65 — Acts 2:42 — Follow what the Twelve taught at Jerusalem and to whom it belonged; this study stays in Galilee and asks what they were told to do.
- Study 42 — One Baptism — Classify every water baptism in Acts and follow Paul's letters to the one baptism of the Body; this study treats "baptizing" only as one word of the commission.
- Gospel Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Lord's Ministry to Israel — Argues that the Lord's ministry before the Cross, and that of the Twelve, was to the lost sheep of the house of Israel; Study 66 records the wording of Matthew 28:18–20 beside the commission committed to Paul.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 3 — Paul Called and Sent — Argues that Paul's commission is one in the accounts of Acts 9, 22 and 26 and that Antioch sends and does not originate it; Study 66 sets the Galilean commission beside Paul's without arguing a position beyond the text.
- Doctrinal Packet — Matthew — The Doctrinal Packet on Matthew interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 66 reads Matthew 28:18–20.

Study 19 — The Jerusalem Council

What this study answers. Study 19 examines the Acts 15 controversy, testimony, decree, and recognition of ministry to Gentiles.

- Study 18 — Peter and Paul: Distinct Apostolic Commissions — Establish the distinct commissions of the apostles present at the council; this keeps its shared deliberation from implying identical audiences and assignments.
- Study 15 — Faith and Works in James and Paul — Separate the council's circumcision question from James 2's treatment of faith and works; reading each dispute on its own terms prevents a false shortcut between them.
- Study 51 — Circumcision — Trace circumcision itself in full — Israel's fleshly sign, the Body's non-fleshly circumcision of Christ, and the two opposite errors a careful reader must avoid on either side of this council's own test case.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 4 — Cornelius and the Council — Reads Cornelius and the council at Jerusalem and argues that one question reached Jerusalem in two forms and was answered by four speakers for four parts; Study 19 reads Acts 15's dispute, testimony and decree as recorded, without arguing a position.
- Doctrinal Packet — Acts — The Doctrinal Packet on Acts interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 19 reads the Jerusalem Council.

Study 20 — Understanding Acts 2:38

What this study answers. Study 20 reads Peter's commands and the promised Spirit in Acts 2:38 as part of his Pentecost appeal to Israel.

- Study 2 — The Gospel of the Kingdom — Recover the promised Kingdom and its audience before interpreting Peter's response; this makes clear why his hearers ask their question in Acts 2:37.
- Study 34 — Filled Again — Distinguish the Spirit promised at Pentecost from the apostles' later renewed filling in Acts 4, so different Spirit-related events are not treated as identical.
- Study 38 — Why Acts Is Not a Universal Experience Manual — Use the wider test for whether an event narrated in Acts establishes a present obligation for the Body.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 1 — Acts 1–8 — Reads Acts 1–8 scene by scene and argues they report Israel's prophetic program in motion, including the nation called at Pentecost; Study 20 interprets Peter's appeal and baptism in Acts 2:38 in its setting without arguing beyond the text.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Spirit in Acts — Reads the four scenes of the Spirit's coming, at Jerusalem, Samaria, Caesarea and Ephesus, in the order Acts gives them; Study 20 reads the Acts 2:38 call and records what the text says without arguing a position.
- Doctrinal Packet — Acts — The Doctrinal Packet on Acts interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 20 reads Peter's call at Pentecost in Acts 2:38.

Study 65 — Acts 2:42

What this study answers. Study 65 asks what “the apostles’ doctrine” of Acts 2:42 was, and to whom it belonged.

- Study 20 — Understanding Acts 2:38 — Read Peter’s appeal and baptism to Israel in its setting; this study begins with what the converts did after that appeal.
- Study 18 — Peter and Paul: Distinct Apostolic Commissions — Compare the two commissions across the book; this study asks what the Twelve’s teaching contained.
- Study 38 — Why Acts Is Not a Universal Experience Manual — Use the wider test for when an Acts event becomes a present obligation; this study applies a method of that kind to one verse.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 1 — Acts 1–8 — Reads Acts 1–8 scene by scene and argues that they report Israel’s prophetic program in motion; Study 65 examines Acts 2:42 alone, recording what the Twelve taught and what the converts continued in.
- Doctrinal Packet — Acts — The Doctrinal Packet on Acts interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 65 reads Acts 2:42, the apostles’ doctrine.

Study 25 — The Signs That Followed

What this study answers. Study 25 reads Mark 16’s signs with the commission, audience, and confirming purpose in view.

- Study 38 — Why Acts Is Not a Universal Experience Manual — Apply a broader test for moving from signs and other narrated events to present obligations; this helps determine what Mark 16’s record authorizes today.
- Study 34 — Filled Again — Distinguish repeated Spirit filling in Acts from the sign promises connected to a particular commission; both concern divine enablement, but they answer different questions.
- Study 42 — One Baptism — See how Mark’s baptism fits among the baptisms Scripture describes, and which baptism Paul identifies for the Body.
- Gospel Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Lord’s Ministry to Israel — Argues that the Lord’s ministry before the Cross, and that of the Twelve, was to the lost sheep of the house of Israel; Study 25 reads Mark 16:16–20 and the purpose of its signs without arguing a position beyond the text.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Spirit in Acts — Argues that the four Spirit scenes in Acts follow no single order and give no formula; Study 25 reads the signs promised in Mark 16 beside their record, without arguing a position beyond the text.
- Doctrinal Packet — Mark — The Doctrinal Packet on Mark interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 25 reads the signs that followed.

Study 34 — Filled Again

What this study answers. Study 34 explains why apostles could be filled again in Acts 4 without losing and regaining the Spirit.

- Study 20 — Understanding Acts 2:38 — Read Peter's earlier Pentecost promise and his audience first; this distinguishes initial Spirit reception from the later renewed enablement recorded in Acts 4.
- Study 38 — Why Acts Is Not a Universal Experience Manual — Apply the Acts-reading test to repeated filling; it clarifies what a historical event teaches without making each occurrence a universal required sequence.
- Study 44 — Walking in the Spirit — Distinguish these renewed, repeated Acts-era fillings from the Body's settled, once-for-all indwelling ministry of the Spirit that this study examines.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Spirit in Acts — Reads Acts' four scenes of the Spirit's coming and argues they follow no single order and give no formula; Study 34 records the repeated fillings in Acts and their contexts, without arguing a position beyond the text.
- Doctrinal Packet — Acts — The Doctrinal Packet on Acts interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 34 asks why the Spirit filled God's servants more than once in Acts.

Study 38 — Why Acts Is Not a Universal Experience Manual

What this study answers. Study 38 asks when an action narrated in Acts is instructive history and when it establishes a present obligation for the Body.

- Study 20 — Understanding Acts 2:38 — Apply the test to Peter's commands at Pentecost, where audience and prophetic context control how Acts 2:38 is read.
- Study 25 — The Signs That Followed — Apply it to Mark 16's sign commission and its recorded effects, so a narrated sign is not assumed to bind every believer.
- Study 34 — Filled Again — Apply it to the apostles' renewed Spirit filling, distinguishing what Acts reports from a required sequence for all readers.
- Study 39 — The Church's Relationship to Israel's Scriptures — Carry the same audience and assignment questions into Israel's earlier Scriptures to move responsibly from original meaning to present application.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Spirit in Acts — Argues that Acts' four Spirit scenes follow no single order and that the book gives no formula; Study 38 tests how Acts' narrative events relate to audience and present instruction, without arguing a position beyond the text.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 1 — Acts 1–8 — Reads Acts 1–8 scene by scene and argues it reports Israel's prophetic program in motion; Study 38 asks across the whole book how narrative events instruct, without arguing a position beyond the text.
- Doctrinal Packet — Acts — The Doctrinal Packet on Acts interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 38 asks why Acts is not a universal experience manual.

Study 42 — One Baptism

What this study answers. Study 42 defines baptism from Scripture and identifies from Paul's letters the one baptism that places believers into the Body of Christ.

- Study 20 — Understanding Acts 2:38 — Read Peter's Pentecost command to Israel in detail; this study classifies it among the many baptisms Scripture describes.
- Study 25 — The Signs That Followed — Examine the Kingdom commission that joins belief and baptism in Mark 16, which this study distinguishes from Paul's commission.
- Study 34 — Filled Again — Follow the Spirit's fillings in Acts, which this study distinguishes from the Spirit's once-for-all baptism into the one Body.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Spirit in Acts — Argues the four Spirit scenes in Acts (Jerusalem, Samaria, Caesarea, Ephesus) follow no single order and give no formula; Study 42 defines baptism from Scripture and classifies the water baptisms in Acts, tracing Paul's teaching without arguing beyond the text.
- Pauline Doctrine Series, Volume 2 — The Cross in Paul's Letters — Argues what Paul's passages on the Cross each say it did, including dying with Christ in Romans 6 and Colossians 2, and cites this study for the baptism there; Study 42 defines baptism from Scripture without arguing beyond the text.

Study 43 — The Gospel of the Grace of God

What this study answers. Study 43 defines Paul's gospel from 1 Corinthians 15 and Romans 3, addressed to all on the same terms, and relates it to the Mystery.

- Study 2 — The Gospel of the Kingdom — Read the Kingdom message Israel was called to believe; this study distinguishes it from Paul's gospel without merging their audiences, content, or programmatic authority.
- Study 6 — The Mystery Revealed Through Paul — Examine the previously hidden truth Paul was given to reveal; this study relates that Mystery to the gospel he preached without collapsing the two.
- Study 11 — The Beginning of the Body of Christ — Ask when the Body began; this study identifies the gospel by which its members are justified, reconciled, and placed into that Body.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Mystery Program — Argues the secret Paul names was hid in God and revealed through him; Study 43 sets out the content, audience and faith of Paul's gospel from 1 Corinthians 15 and Romans 3 and relates it to the Mystery without arguing a position beyond the text.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 3 — Paul Called and Sent — Argues the commission is one in all three accounts of Paul's call and that Antioch sends and does not originate it; Study 43 defines the gospel Paul calls his own from his letters, recording its content without arguing a position beyond the text.

Study 59 — The Law’s Jurisdiction and the Body of Christ

What this study answers. Study 59 identifies the Sinai covenant’s named recipients, what the Law could and could not do, and the positive basis of the Body’s obedience under grace in Paul’s letters.

- Study 4 — Israel and the Body of Christ — Establish the broader distinction in corporate identity before asking whether Israel’s covenant commands govern the Body.
- Study 36 — Jews, Gentiles, and the Church of God — Identify Paul’s three audiences in 1 Corinthians 10:32; then ask the separate jurisdiction question Study 59 addresses.
- Study 19 — The Jerusalem Council — Test the jurisdiction question in Acts 15’s actual decision about circumcision and the Law for Gentile believers.
- Study 51 — Circumcision — Trace the sign’s own covenant history and Paul’s spiritual circumcision language beyond the single council dispute.
- Study 45 — Sanctification Under Grace — See why freedom from Sinai’s jurisdiction does not cancel Paul’s concrete commands to holiness.
- Study 47 — Giving Under Grace — Apply the same test to the tithe and Paul’s distinct instruction for willing, accountable giving.
- Parable Study — The Good Samaritan — The Good Samaritan shows the Law's neighbor-standard in its own setting — read it alongside this study's account of the Law's jurisdiction. Passage: Luke 10:25–37.

Life and standing in Christ

How does the Body’s position in Christ shape life now?

Study 5 — The Heavenly Calling

What this study answers. Study 5 surveys the Body’s heavenly identity, blessings, citizenship, hope, and future purpose.

- Study 30 — Seated With Christ in Heavenly Places — Examine the specific claim that believers are seated with Christ in Ephesians 2:6. It helps distinguish the text’s established heavenly position from further claims about present authority and future governing service.
- Study 16 — The Believer's Identity in Christ — Connect heavenly calling to the believer’s present standing and conduct in Christ, so the larger calling is not treated only as a future destination.
- Study 52 — Sonship and Adoption — See the Body's own adoption in Ephesians 1:3–5 traced in full — one specific blessing within the wider heavenly calling this study surveys.
- Study 57 — The Eternal Purpose of God — Read how the Body’s heavenly calling participates in the Church’s present display of divine wisdom in Ephesians 3, while Study 5 surveys the calling itself.
- Prophetic Identity Commentary Series, Volume 5 — The Eschatological Community — Sets out the Body’s separate destination in the heavenly places beside the New Jerusalem of Israel’s hope; Study 5 maps the Body’s heavenly blessings, citizenship, hope and purpose as the passages state them.
- Covenantal Commentary Series, Volume 4 — The Eternal Purpose of God — Argues that God’s one purpose in Christ is served by two callings and shows where they meet; Study 5 records the Body’s heavenly calling in its own passages without arguing how the callings relate.

Study 16 — The Believer's Identity in Christ

What this study answers. Study 16 surveys the believer’s identity and standing in Christ and how conduct flows from that standing.

- Study 37 — What Does Paul Mean by “New Creation”? — Examine Paul’s new-creation language closely; it distinguishes an accomplished identity in Christ from ongoing renewal and moral practice.
- Study 44 — Walking in the Spirit — Follow how this settled identity works itself out day by day, in the conflict between the flesh and the Spirit and the fruit that walk produces.
- Study 45 — Sanctification Under Grace — Isolate one member of this identity — sanctification — and see why the believer is already sanctified in Christ before any command to grow follows.

Study 22 — Prayer Under Grace

What this study answers. Study 22 establishes prayer under grace from Paul while reading Kingdom prayer promises in their own setting.

- Study 16 — The Believer's Identity in Christ — Place prayer within the believer's present standing in Christ; this helps relate confidence before God to daily practice without promising a particular change in circumstances.
- Study 39 — The Church's Relationship to Israel's Scriptures — Use the distinction between learning from earlier Scripture and claiming a promise addressed to another audience when reading prayer teaching outside Paul's letters.
- Gospel Commentary Series, Volume 1 — The Sermon on the Mount — Argues that the Sermon on the Mount, with its teaching on prayer, is the Lord's teaching of his disciples in Israel and not the pattern of life laid on the Body of Christ; Study 22 reads prayer under grace from Paul and the prayer promises in their own settings.
- Gospel Commentary Series, Volume 5 — The Upper Room — Argues that the promises of John 13–17, including those about asking, are given to the eleven and not to the Body of Christ; Study 22 reads prayer under grace from Paul without arguing who the discourse addresses.
- Parable Study — The Friend and the Persistent Widow — The Friend and the Persistent Widow gives a related but distinct prayer instruction, addressed to Kingdom hearers rather than the Body of Christ. Passage: Luke 11:5–13; 18:1–8.

Study 81 — Praying in the Spirit

What this study answers. Study 81 asks what each passage says about praying "in the Spirit," "with the spirit" and "in an unknown tongue," and where the text itself ties them together or leaves them apart.

- Study 22 — Prayer Under Grace — Compare the prayer teaching Paul gives the Body with the wordings studied here, keeping each passage's own audience and setting in view.
- Study 25 — The Signs That Followed — Use the study of signs and tongues in Acts to keep what the tongues accounts record separate from what the prayer passages say, reading each in its own setting.
- Study 38 — Why Acts Is Not a Universal Experience Manual — Use the study of what Acts records and what it does not teach as a universal pattern when reading the Acts tongues accounts beside the letters.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Spirit in Acts — Argues a position on the four scenes in which Acts reports the Spirit's coming; Study 81 reports the Acts accounts beside Paul's wordings and states no conclusion.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 4 — Cornelius and the Council — Argues how the household of Cornelius and the council at Jerusalem fit together; Study 81 records only what Acts 10:46 says about speech.

Study 30 — Seated With Christ in Heavenly Places

What this study answers. Study 30 closely tests what being seated with Christ means in Ephesians 1–2, including the limits of claims about authority and service.

- Study 5 — The Heavenly Calling — Set this focused passage study within the Body's wider heavenly calling, citizenship, hope, and purpose; the larger framework gives context without supplying details Ephesians 2:6 does not state.
- Study 16 — The Believer's Identity in Christ — Relate the seated position to the believer's broader standing and conduct in Christ, so positional truth and daily life are kept together without confusing them.
- Study 57 — The Eternal Purpose of God — Connect the Body's position in Ephesians 2:6 to the wisdom made known through the Church in Ephesians 3:10, while testing what each text actually says about authority.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Mystery Program — Argues that the secret Paul names was hid in God and revealed through him, with a heavenly seat among its content; Study 30 tests what being seated with Christ in heavenly places says, without arguing beyond the text.
- Doctrinal Packet — Ephesians — The Doctrinal Packet on Ephesians interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 30 reads being seated with Christ in heavenly places.

Study 37 — What Does Paul Mean by "New Creation"?

What this study answers. Study 37 examines Paul's new-creation language as an accomplished reality with individual and corporate dimensions.

- Study 16 — The Believer's Identity in Christ — Start with the larger account of identity and standing in Christ; it places new creation among related blessings while Study 37 tests this expression's particular meaning and limits.
- Study 4 — Israel and the Body of Christ — Check the distinct corporate identities of Israel and the Body before assigning Israel's prophetic restoration promises to Paul's new creation.
- Study 44 — Walking in the Spirit — Distinguish this accomplished new-creation standing from the believer's ongoing, present-tense walk by the Spirit, which this study examines from Galatians 5 and Romans 8.

Study 44 — Walking in the Spirit

What this study answers. Study 44 defines what it means for a member of the Body of Christ to walk by the Spirit, and distinguishes that ongoing ministry from the signs and repeated fillings recorded in Acts.

- Study 16 — The Believer's Identity in Christ — Start with the settled identity and standing this study assumes; Study 44 examines how that standing works itself out in the believer's daily conduct.
- Study 34 — Filled Again — Read the Acts-era pattern of repeated, renewed fillings for Israel's apostolic servants; this study distinguishes that from the Body's settled, once-for-all indwelling.
- Study 37 — What Does Paul Mean by "New Creation"? — Examine the accomplished new-creation standing this study presupposes without repeating; Study 44 focuses on the present-tense walk rather than the standing itself.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Spirit in Acts — Argues the four Spirit scenes in Acts follow no single order and are none of them the indwelling Paul's letters state; Study 44 sorts the Spirit's activity in Paul's letters from the fillings and signs recorded in Acts, reporting each as written.

Study 45 — Sanctification Under Grace

What this study answers. Study 45 distinguishes three senses of sanctification in Paul's letters — positional, practical, and progressive — and separates the Body's sanctification under grace from Israel's holiness under the Mosaic Law.

- Study 16 — The Believer's Identity in Christ — Start with the believer's settled identity and standing, of which positional sanctification is one accomplished member; Study 45 isolates that member and asks what it specifically means.
- Study 44 — Walking in the Spirit — Read the moment-by-moment conflict between flesh and Spirit that produces the yielding Romans 6 commands; this study uses Romans 6 only for its practical-sanctification outcome.
- Study 37 — What Does Paul Mean by "New Creation"? — Examine the believer's new-creation standing on its own terms; this study distinguishes that standing from the three senses of sanctification without repeating its argument.

Study 46 — Secure in Christ

What this study answers. Study 46 traces the ground of the believer's standing in Christ, Paul's own argument from the seal, the earnest, and Romans 8, and the hardest texts raised against it.

- Study 16 — The Believer's Identity in Christ — Start with the believer's settled identity in Christ, including the seal and the earnest introduced there as ground for assurance; Study 46 asks the narrower question that study leaves open, whether that standing can be lost.
- Study 28 — The Warning of Hebrews 6:4–6 — Read the full exposition of this frequently raised warning text within its own Hebrew, covenant audience; Study 46 relies on that exposition rather than re-arguing it.
- Study 31 — The Judgments of Scripture — Use the broader classification of biblical judgments to see how reward and standing are treated in the passages Study 46 draws from, 1 Corinthians 3:11–15 and 2 Timothy 2:12.

Study 47 — Giving Under Grace

What this study answers. Study 47 traces the pattern Paul sets for giving under grace — a willing mind measured against what a believer has, not a rate imposed from outside — administered with integrity, and distinguished from Israel's tithe under the Law.

- Study 22 — Prayer Under Grace — Compare another practice of the believer's daily life reframed under grace rather than under a Kingdom-era command, the same interpretive move Study 47 applies to giving.
- Study 45 — Sanctification Under Grace — See the same pattern applied to holiness: the Body's practice under grace is distinguished from Israel's requirement under the Mosaic Law without denying that both use similar language.
- Study 48 — The Christian Household — See the same "not by commandment, yet not without real accountability" pattern applied to the household code's own structure of mutual submission and self-limiting authority.
- Doctrinal Packet — 2 Corinthians — The Doctrinal Packet on 2 Corinthians interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 47 reads giving in Paul's letters to the Body.

Study 48 — The Christian Household

What this study answers. Study 48 traces the household code Paul gives in Ephesians 5:15–6:9, Colossians 3:18–4:1, and 1 Timothy 5:8 — mutual submission as the hinge that governs every household pair, the heavier standard placed on whoever holds authority, and why submission is never inferiority and headship is never superiority.

- Study 22 — Prayer Under Grace — Compare another practice of the believer's daily life reframed under grace rather than under a Kingdom-era command, the same interpretive move this study applies to the household.
- Study 45 — Sanctification Under Grace — See the same pattern applied to holiness: practice flows from a standing already secured, rather than functioning as a covenant duty owed to keep it.
- Study 47 — Giving Under Grace — See the same "not by commandment, yet not without real accountability" pattern applied to the collection Paul entrusted to Titus and the brethren.

Study 76 — Strength to Stand

What this study answers. Study 76 asks what Ephesians 6:10–20 says to do, with what, and against whom, reading the passage in its own words and noting what it leaves unsaid.

- Study 30 — Seated With Christ in Heavenly Places — Read Ephesians 2:6 and the Body's seated position; this study reports the shared word "heavenly places" and does not reopen that question.
- Study 57 — The Eternal Purpose of God — Read Ephesians 3:10–11 on the Church's witness before heavenly authorities; this study sets 3:10 beside 6:12 and does not read it on its own terms.
- Study 48 — The Christian Household — Read the household instruction of Ephesians 5:15–6:9; this study begins at 6:10 and does not take up that instruction.
- Doctrinal Packet — Ephesians — The Doctrinal Packet on Ephesians interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 76 reads Ephesians 6:10–20.

Study 77 — The Believer and Government

What this study answers. Study 77 asks what Romans 13:1–7 says the believer owes to governing authorities, and why, reading the passage in its own setting and noting what it leaves unsaid.

- Study 59 — The Law's Jurisdiction and the Body of Christ — Read the Law's jurisdiction; this study reports Romans 13:8–10 as written and does not take up that question.
- Study 76 — Strength to Stand — Read Ephesians 6:10–20; this study sets the word "powers" beside Ephesians 6:12 and does not read the armour.
- Study 48 — The Christian Household — Read the household instruction of Ephesians 5:15–6:9; this study reads only what is owed in Romans 13:6–7.
- Doctrinal Packet — Romans — The Doctrinal Packet on Romans interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 77 reads Romans 13:1–7.

Study 57 — The Eternal Purpose of God

What this study answers. Study 57 traces God's purpose in Christ before the ages, the Mystery's later disclosure through Paul, and the Church's present witness of manifold wisdom before heavenly authorities. It tests the scope and limits of these claims in Ephesians 1–3.

- Study 6 — The Mystery Revealed Through Paul — Establish the content and timing of the Mystery's revelation first; then ask what Ephesians 3:10–11 says the disclosed Church now displays.
- Study 5 — The Heavenly Calling — Survey the Body's heavenly identity and blessings before connecting its calling to God's larger purpose in Christ.
- Study 30 — Seated With Christ in Heavenly Places — Distinguish the Body's stated present position in Ephesians 2:6 from claims about present rule or jurisdiction that Ephesians 3:10 does not itself command.
- Study 56 — Inheritance — Read the named heirs and objects in inheritance passages before treating Christ's comprehensive headship as a transfer of Israel's land grant.
- Covenantal Commentary Series, Volume 4 — The Eternal Purpose of God — Argues God's one purpose in Christ, the two callings that serve it and where they meet; Study 57 traces the purpose, the Mystery and the display of wisdom in Ephesians, reporting each passage without arguing beyond the text.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Mystery Program — Argues the secret Paul names was hid in God and revealed through him; Study 57 traces the purpose before the ages and the Mystery disclosed through Paul, recording what the text says without arguing a position beyond it.
- Doctrinal Packet — Ephesians — The Doctrinal Packet on Ephesians interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 57 reads the eternal purpose of God.

Prophecy and future events

Which audiences and periods do prophetic passages name?

Study 3 — The Body of Christ and the Tribulation

What this study answers. Study 3 asks whether the Body of Christ belongs in Israel's coming prophetic Tribulation.

- Study 10 — Daniel's Seventieth Week — Establish from Daniel 9 whose people and city the seventieth week concerns; that starting point sharpens the question of whether the Body is the subject of that prophetic period.
- Study 29 — One Taken and the Other Left — Test a frequently cited Tribulation passage in Matthew 24 and Luke 17. Its separation scene can then be interpreted without assuming it describes the Body's gathering.
- Typology Commentary Series, Volume 2 — Prophetic Separation — Argues that Scripture shows God separating the judged from the kept before judgment falls, with the one taken and the one left set in Israel's Tribulation; Study 3 asks whether the Body belongs in the Tribulation and reports what the texts say.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 4 — The Resurrection Order in Scripture — Argues for an order among the resurrections of Scripture, including the Body's relation to Daniel's seventieth week; Study 3 reads the Tribulation passages and records what they say about the Body without arguing an order.

Study 7 — The Day of the Lord

What this study answers. Study 7 traces the prophetic Day of the Lord through judgment and Israel's restoration.

- Study 8 — The Day of Christ — Compare Paul's actual Day-of-Christ expressions with this prophetic Day, so similar sounding phrases are not assigned the same setting or every later event indiscriminately.
- Study 3 — The Body of Christ and the Tribulation — Consider whether the Body belongs to the prophetic Tribulation. That question matters when identifying who participates in the judgments described here.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 5 — Separate Courts — Argues that Scripture names separate courts of judgment, including the beast's kingdom in the day of the Lord; Study 7 traces the prophetic Day's judgment and Israel's restoration passage by passage without arguing a position.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 4 — The Resurrection Order in Scripture — Argues for an order among the resurrections, set against the day of the Lord; Study 7 traces the Day of the Lord in the texts and reports the wording as written.
- Parable Study — The Sheep and the Goats — Two parables belong to this same prophetic horizon. Passage: Matthew 25:31–46.
- Parable Study — The Fig Tree Lesson — Passage: Matthew 24:32–35; Mark 13; Luke 21.

Study 8 — The Day of Christ

What this study answers. Study 8 examines Paul's Day-of-Christ expressions and the limits of what those verses explicitly establish.

- Study 7 — The Day of the Lord — Set these expressions beside the prophetic Day of the Lord to keep Paul's language of completion and rejoicing distinct from Israel's judgment and restoration setting.
- Study 31 — The Judgments of Scripture — Place future evaluation alongside Scripture's other judgments; this prevents reward, condemnation, and prophetic judgment from being treated as a single event.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 4 — The Resurrection Order in Scripture — Argues that the Body's rising is a secret shown through Paul and placed before the day of the Lord; Study 8 reads Paul's Day-of-Christ expressions and related hope as written, without arguing an order.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 5 — Separate Courts — Argues that the judgment seat of Christ is the Body's own accounting, separate from other courts; Study 8 interprets Paul's Day-of-Christ expressions and records the related passages without arguing a position.

Study 10 — Daniel's Seventieth Week

What this study answers. Study 10 reads Daniel's seventieth week in relation to Daniel's people, city, and prophetic timetable.

- Study 3 — The Body of Christ and the Tribulation — Test whether the Body of Christ should be placed in the Tribulation that readers associate with this period; the answer depends on keeping Daniel's stated audience in view.
- Study 7 — The Day of the Lord — Situate the period's judgments within the wider prophetic Day of the Lord and its movement toward restoration, without flattening the two studies into the same question.
- Study 74 — The Man of Sin — Read the rulers Daniel names beside 2 Thessalonians 2, the Gospels, and Revelation, feature by feature; this study keeps to Daniel's seventieth week.
- Prophetic Commentary Series, Volume 4 — Daniel's Seventy Weeks — Argues what Daniel 9:24–27 says about the decree, the cutting off of Messiah, the prince who comes and the last week; Study 10 interprets Daniel 9 with its prophetic audience and period, reporting the text without arguing beyond it.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 3 — The Kingdom Program — Follows the kingdom promised to Israel through the Prophets, Gospels, Acts and Revelation; Study 10 reads the seventieth week and the coming Kingdom as the text states them.
- Doctrinal Packet — Daniel — The Doctrinal Packet on Daniel interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 10 reads Daniel's seventieth week.

Study 74 — The Man of Sin

What this study answers. Study 74 asks what 2 Thessalonians 2, Daniel, Matthew, Mark, Luke, Revelation, and John's letters say about a final ruler, an abomination of desolation, and an antichrist, and what each passage leaves unsaid.

- Study 10 — Daniel's Seventieth Week — Read Daniel's seventieth week in relation to Daniel's people, city, and timetable; this study reads Daniel only for the features of the rulers it names.
- Study 7 — The Day of the Lord — Trace the prophetic Day of the Lord through judgment and restoration; this study does not settle the wording of 2 Thessalonians 2:2.
- Study 61 — Revelation 12 — Identify the figures of Revelation 12 from the chapter's own markers; this study does not take up the dragon, the woman, or the male child.
- Prophetic Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Beast and the False Prophet — Argues who the second beast of Revelation 13 is and how the dragon, the beast and the false prophet work and end; Study 74 reports the final-ruler passages side by side, each in its own setting, without naming one person.
- Prophetic Commentary Series, Volume 4 — Daniel's Seventy Weeks — Argues what Daniel 9:24–27 says of the prince who comes and the last week; Study 74 reports Daniel's ruler passages beside 2 Thessalonians 2 and John's antichrist texts without arguing a position beyond the text.
- Gospel Commentary Series, Volume 3 — The Olivet Discourse — Argues that the Olivet Discourse speaks to Israel of Israel's tribulation, signs and King; Study 74 reports the abomination of desolation beside the other final-ruler passages without arguing a position beyond the text.

Study 23 — The 144,000

What this study answers. Study 23 identifies Revelation's numbered, sealed Israelite company in chapters 7 and 14.

- Study 9 — The Remnant — Compare this specifically numbered tribal company with the wider believing remnant; this prevents one group from standing in for every faithful Israelite.
- Study 26 — The Seven Churches of Revelation — Read the earlier messages to Revelation's seven assemblies in their own setting before connecting later scenes and groups in the book.
- Study 61 — Revelation 12 — See this same numbered company appear as the male child of 12:5, caught up before the dragon can reach him.
- Prophetic Identity Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Remnant — Argues that the remnant of the prophets and of Revelation is the preserved believing portion of Israel; Study 23 reads the numbered tribal company of Revelation 7 and 14 passage by passage without arguing a position beyond the text.
- Doctrinal Packet — Revelation — The Doctrinal Packet on Revelation interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 23 reads the 144,000.

Study 61 — Revelation 12

What this study answers. Study 61 identifies the woman, the dragon, the male child, and her offspring in Revelation 12 from the chapter's own textual markers.

- Study 23 — The 144,000 — Identify Revelation's numbered, sealed Israelite company directly; this study traces that same company's appearance as the male child of 12:5.
- Study 9 — The Remnant — Follow Israel's believing remnant across its whole history; this study narrates one Tribulation-era scene of that same preservation.
- Study 10 — Daniel's Seventieth Week — Establish the seventieth week's seven-year structure and midpoint; this study reads Revelation 12's 1,260 days from the woman's own vantage point within that same half-week.
- Prophetic Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Beast and the False Prophet — Argues who the second beast of Revelation 13 is and how the dragon, the beast and the false prophet work together and end; Study 61 reads Revelation 12 from its own Old Testament background and textual markers.
- Prophetic Identity Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Remnant — Argues that the remnant of the prophets and of Revelation is the preserved believing portion of Israel; Study 61 traces the woman's offspring in Revelation 12 through the chapter's own markers without arguing that case.
- Doctrinal Packet — Revelation — The Doctrinal Packet on Revelation interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 61 reads Revelation 12.

Study 26 — The Seven Churches of Revelation

What this study answers. Study 26 interprets Revelation's messages to seven named assemblies within their prophetic setting.

- Study 23 — The 144,000 — Follow the separately identified 144,000 in later Revelation passages; this keeps the seven assemblies and the sealed tribal company from being assumed to be the same audience.
- Study 10 — Daniel's Seventieth Week — Check Daniel's stated people and period before importing a prophetic timetable into the seven letters; the comparison disciplines claims about when those messages apply.
- Doctrinal Packet — Revelation — The Doctrinal Packet on Revelation interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 26 reads the seven churches of Revelation.

Study 27 — Israel's Seven Appointed Feasts

What this study answers. Study 27 examines Israel's appointed feasts in their covenant calendar, their relation to Christ, and the limits of present application.

- Study 39 — The Church's Relationship to Israel's Scriptures — Use a method for learning from Israel's commands without taking over its covenant calendar; this clarifies how a feast can teach the Body without becoming its required observance.
- Study 12 — The New Covenant — Compare the feasts' covenant setting with Jeremiah's New Covenant recipients; this keeps Israel's ceremonial and promised restoration contexts identifiable when considering later fulfillment.
- Study 78 — The Sabbath and Its Meanings — Read the Sabbath across every passage that names it; this study reads the weekly Sabbath inside Leviticus 23.

Study 64 — The Wedding and the Wedding Supper

What this study answers. Study 64 asks what Revelation 19:6–10 announces, who is wed, and who is called to the marriage supper.

- Study 1 — The Bride of Christ — Trace where Scripture places bridal language and what Paul's marriage imagery does; this study takes that identification as given and reads the wedding announcement itself.
- Study 27 — Israel's Seven Appointed Feasts — Follow Israel's covenant calendar; this study reads a Kingdom-threshold banquet that is not one of the Leviticus 23 feasts.
- Study 4 — Israel and the Body of Christ — Use the larger Israel and Body comparison as the frame within which this scene is assigned.
- Prophetic Identity Commentary Series, Volume 1 — The Bride Identity in Prophecy — Argues that the wife of the LORD in the prophets and the Lamb's wife in Revelation are one wife, Israel; Study 64 reads Revelation 19:6–10, recording how the text keeps wife, supper and called distinct.
- Parable Study — The Wedding Banquet — Two parables tell of refused invitations to a feast. Study 64 cites them as parallel banquet images and does not teach them; read them to see each in its own setting. Passage: Matthew 22:1–14.
- Parable Study — The Great Banquet — Passage: Luke 14:15–24.
- Doctrinal Packet — Revelation — The Doctrinal Packet on Revelation interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 64 reads the wedding and the wedding supper.

Study 29 — One Taken and the Other Left

What this study answers. Study 29 reads the 'one taken' passages in Matthew 24 and Luke 17 as prophetic separation in their immediate contexts.

- Study 3 — The Body of Christ and the Tribulation — Compare the Body's future hope with Israel's coming Tribulation; this explains why a separation in the prophetic discourse should not automatically be called the Body's gathering.
- Study 7 — The Day of the Lord — Identify the wider Day-of-the-Lord judgment setting around prophetic separation; the context sharpens who is being separated and why.
- Study 49 — The Resurrections of Scripture — Compare the prophetic separation traced here with the Body's own heavenly resurrection, so the two are never treated as the same event.
- Typology Commentary Series, Volume 2 — Prophetic Separation — Argues that Scripture shows God separating the judged from the kept before judgment falls, with the one taken and the one left inside that pattern; Study 29 sets out Matthew 24 and Luke 17 in their own contexts without arguing a wider pattern.
- Gospel Commentary Series, Volume 3 — The Olivet Discourse — Argues that the Olivet Discourse speaks to Israel of her tribulation, signs and King, reading Matthew, Mark and Luke together; Study 29 examines the two separation sayings in their settings without arguing a position beyond the text.
- Parable Study — The Ten Virgins — Two parables narrate readiness within the same discourse this study examines. Passage: Matthew 25:1–13.
- Parable Study — The Thief and Watchful Servants — Passage: Matthew 24:43–44; Mark 13:34–37; Luke 12.

Study 49 — The Resurrections of Scripture

What this study answers. Study 49 traces the distinct resurrections Scripture describes — Christ's own, the Body's, and Israel's — and the principle that keeps them from being flattened into one.

- Study 31 — The Judgments of Scripture — See the Great White Throne examined in full as a judgment; this study's interest is narrower — the resurrection that brings the unjust dead to stand before it.
- Study 8 — The Day of Christ — Compare Paul's Day-of-Christ language with the Body's resurrection hope traced here, both tied to glorification rather than to Israel's Kingdom.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 4 — The Resurrection Order in Scripture — Argues Scripture names several resurrections, sorted by whose they are and in what order they come; Study 49 traces each resurrection passage in its own setting, recording what the text says without arguing a position beyond it.
- Pauline Doctrine Series, Volume 1 — Adam and Christ — Argues what Paul's two Adam passages, Romans 5 and 1 Corinthians 15, each answer, and reads the order of 1 Corinthians 15:23 narrowly; Study 49 reports each resurrection passage as written.
- Parable Study — The Rich Man and Lazarus — The Rich Man and Lazarus is sometimes read as resurrection teaching. It is not — read the parable alongside this study to see why. Passage: Luke 16:19–31.

Study 69 — The Eternal State

What this study answers. Study 69 asks where Scripture places Israel and the Body in the eternal state, what the passages state about each realm, and how the two are joined under Christ.

- Study 5 — The Heavenly Calling — Map the Body's whole heavenly calling; this study takes the heavenly setting as one of two realms without re-deriving the calling.
- Study 57 — The Eternal Purpose of God — Trace God's purpose before the ages and its future fullness; this study reads Ephesians 1:10 only for the two realms it names.
- Study 1 — The Bride of Christ — Establish to whom the bridal identity belongs; this study notes the city is called a bride and defers the identity.
- Prophetic Identity Commentary Series, Volume 5 — The Eschatological Community — Reads the New Jerusalem as the city of Israel's prophetic hope and sets out the Body's separate destination in the heavenly places; Study 69 records what each eternal-state passage states without arguing beyond the text.
- Covenantal Commentary Series, Volume 4 — The Eternal Purpose of God — Reads God's one purpose in Christ, the two callings that serve it and where they meet; Study 69 records what the passages on the new earth and the heavenly hope state, without arguing a position beyond the text.

Difficult passages and interpretive systems

How do we keep an argument's own context and question intact?

Study 15 — Faith and Works in James and Paul

What this study answers. Study 15 reads James 2 and Romans 4 according to each writer's audience, argument, and use of Abraham.

- Study 40 — Who Is Abraham's Seed? — Trace Paul's fuller Abraham argument across Romans and Galatians; it helps distinguish his claims about faith and heirship from the question James is answering.
- Study 19 — The Jerusalem Council — Examine the separate Acts 15 dispute about circumcision and the law for Gentiles; this keeps a council decision from being used as a shortcut to resolve James 2.
- Study 75 — Faith Before the Cross — Read what Abraham, Israel, the prophets, and the disciples are said to have believed before the Cross; this study keeps to James 2 and Romans 4.
- Covenantal Commentary Series, Volume 1 — The Abrahamic Covenant — Reads Romans 4 as a pattern of faith within the covenant God swore to Abraham; Study 15 sets James's and Paul's statements on faith and works side by side, each in its own letter.
- Doctrinal Packet — James — The Doctrinal Packet on James interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 15 sets James beside Paul on faith and works.

Study 62 — Matthew 5:17–20

What this study answers. Study 62 asks what Matthew 5:17–20 itself asserts, of what, and to whom, and how the passage and Paul's statements about the Law can each be read on their own terms.

- Study 59 — The Law's Jurisdiction and the Body of Christ — Survey to whom the Law was given and how Paul instructs the Body; this study tests one Gospel passage inside that larger question.
- Study 2 — The Gospel of the Kingdom — Establish the kingdom message, its audience, and its commission; this study reads the sermon's opening statements within that announced setting.
- Study 41 — Kingdom of God or Kingdom of Heaven? — Work through the two kingdom phrases and their distinctions; this study meets "the kingdom of heaven" in Matthew 5:19–20 without settling the phrase question.
- Gospel Commentary Series, Volume 1 — The Sermon on the Mount — Argues that the Sermon on the Mount is the Lord's teaching of his disciples in Israel and the standard of the Kingdom; Study 62 examines Matthew 5:17–20 only, recording its audience and wording beside Paul's statements on the Law.
- Doctrinal Packet — Matthew — The Doctrinal Packet on Matthew interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 62 reads Matthew 5:17–20.

Study 70 — Born of Water and of the Spirit

What this study answers. Study 70 asks what Jesus meant Nicodemus to understand by “born of water and of the Spirit” in John 3:1–15, read by its words, its audience, and the Scriptures Nicodemus knew.

- Study 42 — One Baptism — Classify every baptism in Acts and follow Paul to the one baptism of the Body; this study stays in John 3 and classifies no baptisms.
- Study 20 — Understanding Acts 2:38 — Read Peter’s Pentecost appeal in its setting; this study reads a conversation spoken before the cross.
- Study 41 — Kingdom of God or Kingdom of Heaven? — Compare the two kingdom phrases across the Gospels; this study asks only what “see” and “enter” mean in John 3:3, 5.
- Doctrinal Packet — John — The Doctrinal Packet on John interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 70 reads one conversation in John 3.

Study 63 — Isaiah 7:13–16

What this study answers. Study 63 asks what the sign of Isaiah 7:13–16 meant to the house of David in Ahaz’s day, and how Matthew 1:22–23 says it was fulfilled.

- Study 62 — Matthew 5:17–20 — Follow how Matthew uses “fulfil” across his Gospel; this study examines the Isaiah passage behind one of those uses.
- Study 21 — Israel’s Judicial Blinding — Trace the hardening announced in Isaiah 6; this study begins with the sign given in the next chapter.
- Study 9 — The Remnant — Follow Israel’s believing remnant through its history; this study meets Shear-jashub only as part of the scene at the upper pool.
- Covenantal Commentary Series, Volume 5 — The Davidic Covenant — Reads the promise God swore to David, the throne and the kingdom, and answers modern writers; Study 63 reads Isaiah 7:13–16 in Ahaz’s crisis and Matthew’s use, recording what the text says of the house of David.
- Doctrinal Packet — Isaiah — The Doctrinal Packet on Isaiah interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 63 reads Isaiah 7:13–16.

Study 24 — The Willful Sin Warning

What this study answers. Study 24 follows Hebrews 10:26–31 and its warning against repudiating the Son and His covenant blood.

- Study 28 — The Warning of Hebrews 6:4–6 — Compare the earlier warning in Hebrews 6, including its land illustration; reading the two arguments separately helps identify their shared seriousness without making their every detail identical.
- Study 12 — The New Covenant — Review the New Covenant promise and its recipients when assessing the covenant language that makes Hebrews 10’s warning so grave.
- Doctrinal Packet — Hebrews — The Doctrinal Packet on Hebrews interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 24 reads Hebrews 10:26–31.

Study 28 — The Warning of Hebrews 6:4–6

What this study answers. Study 28 interprets Hebrews 6:4–6 within its argument about privilege, falling away, the land illustration, and encouragement.

- Study 24 — The Willful Sin Warning — Compare Hebrews 10's distinct warning about repudiating the Son and His covenant blood. The comparison shows where the warnings converge and where each passage has its own evidence and emphasis.
- Study 31 — The Judgments of Scripture — Use the broader classification of biblical judgments to avoid treating every warning as the same kind of future judgment.
- Study 46 — Secure in Christ — See how this warning's covenant audience is weighed against the Body's security under grace, and why the warning does not transfer to the Body of Christ.
- Doctrinal Packet — Hebrews — The Doctrinal Packet on Hebrews interprets the book through its key passages in five pages; Study 28 reads the warning of Hebrews 6:4–6.

Study 67 — Melchizedek

What this study answers. Study 67 asks who Melchizedek is in the three passages that name him, what Hebrews makes of his priesthood, and to whom that argument speaks.

- Study 28 — The Warning of Hebrews 6:4–6 — Read Hebrews 6's warning in its own argument; this study touches Hebrews 6 only where the oath and the forerunner lead to Melchizedek.
- Study 17 — The Abrahamic Covenant — Establish the covenant promises made to Abraham; this study treats Genesis 14 only for what it says about the king of Salem.
- Study 12 — The New Covenant — Examine Israel's promised restoration under Messiah; this study notes the change of priesthood and law without re-deriving the covenant.
- Typology Commentary Series, Volume 3 — Priesthood Typology: Aaron, Melchizedek & Christ — Argues that Aaron's priesthood and the order of Melchizedek are two orders and that the Son holds the second in the heavenly sanctuary; Study 67 reads Genesis 14, Psalm 110 and Hebrews 5–7, recording what each says.

Study 32 — Covenant Theology and Dispensational Theology

What this study answers. Study 32 compares how covenant theology and dispensational theology organize biblical promises, continuity, and distinctions.

- Study 4 — Israel and the Body of Christ — Test each system's treatment of Israel and the Body against a focused study of their corporate identities, callings, and promises; the comparison moves from labels to specific scriptural claims.
- Study 39 — The Church's Relationship to Israel's Scriptures — Apply an audience-sensitive reading method to Israel's earlier Scriptures; it provides a concrete test of how any larger theological system handles original recipients and present application.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 1 — Israel & the Body — Sets Israel's prophetic program beside the Body's Mystery program and answers eight modern writers; Study 32 compares the two systems' claims on the covenants, Israel and Acts, without arguing for either beyond the text.

Study 58 — What Is a Dispensation?

What this study answers. Study 58 reads “dispensation” as stewardship or administration in its immediate passages. It distinguishes Paul’s entrusted grace ministry, the truth revealed through him, and God’s future ordering of all things in Christ.

- Study 6 — The Mystery Revealed Through Paul — Identify what was hidden and then disclosed; Study 58 asks how Paul was entrusted to make that truth known for others.
- Study 32 — Covenant Theology and Dispensational Theology — Test wider organizing systems after the word’s particular uses have been read in context, rather than making one noun prove an entire system.
- Study 57 — The Eternal Purpose of God — Read the future fullness and God’s purpose in Christ without equating Ephesians 1:10 with the personal stewardship in Ephesians 3:2.
- Study 18 — Peter and Paul: Distinct Apostolic Commissions — Use Acts and Galatians to test the historically concurrent assignments, which a word study alone cannot establish.
- Acts Commentary Series, Volume 3 — Paul Called and Sent — Argues the commission is one in all three accounts of Paul’s call and shows where his letters state the stewardship and the mystery; Study 58 defines oikonomia from its four passages, reporting the usage without arguing beyond the text.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 2 — The Mystery Program — Argues the secret Paul names was hid in God and revealed through him, a stewardship committed to Paul; Study 58 separates the entrusted assignment from the Mystery content, recording each passage without arguing a position beyond the text.
- Parable Study — The Shrewd Manager — The Shrewd Manager sets a steward’s accounting before the Lord’s hearers in Luke 16:1–13, the passage where this study first meets the word oikonomia. Read the parable to see the word inside a story; Study 58 traces what the word names across its uses. Passage: Luke 16:1–13.

Judgment and reward

How do different judgments and reward images relate?

Study 31 — The Judgments of Scripture

What this study answers. Study 31 classifies Scripture's judgments by their subjects, timing, standards, purposes, and outcomes.

- Study 33 — The Crowns of Scripture — Examine crowns and rewards in their own passages; this helps locate reward language within the right evaluation instead of treating every crown as salvation or condemnation.
- Study 8 — The Day of Christ — Read Paul's Day-of-Christ expressions before attaching an entire judgment scheme to them; the distinction keeps explicit wording and related future teaching in proper relation.
- Study 46 — Secure in Christ — See how the distinction between a lost reward and a lost standing, drawn here from 1 Corinthians 3:11–15 and 2 Timothy 2:12, secures the believer's standing while keeping reward in its own place.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 5 — Separate Courts — Argues that Scripture names separate courts of judgment, each with its own seat, people, ground and verdict; Study 31 distinguishes the judgments by subject, timing and outcome as the passages state them, without arguing a position beyond the text.
- Parable Study — The Sheep and the Goats — The Sheep and the Goats narrates one of the judgments this study classifies — read it to see that judgment in its own setting. Passage: Matthew 25:31–46.

Study 33 — The Crowns of Scripture

What this study answers. Study 33 distinguishes reward crowns from other crown imagery, honor, and royal authority according to context.

- Study 31 — The Judgments of Scripture — Locate reward and the Judgment Seat among Scripture's distinct judgments; this prevents a reward image from being confused with condemnation or another judgment scene.
- Study 8 — The Day of Christ — Check what Paul's Day-of-Christ passages actually say about future rejoicing and completion before equating every reference with a specific crown.
- Parable Study — The Talents — Three parables raise reward questions this study answers by classification rather than assumption. Passage: Matthew 25:14–30.
- Parable Study — The Minas — Passage: Luke 19:11–27.
- Parable Study — The Laborers in the Vineyard — Passage: Matthew 20:1–16.

Study 68 — The Book of Life

What this study answers. Study 68 asks what each passage that speaks of a book of names says about it, whose names it records, and what the texts state about removal.

- Study 31 — The Judgments of Scripture — Classify Scripture's judgments by subject, time, standard, and outcome; this study touches the Great White Throne only for the books and the Book of Life.
- Study 49 — The Resurrections of Scripture — Trace the distinct resurrections, including that of the unjust; this study takes that resurrection as given.
- Study 46 — Secure in Christ — Argue the Body's security from Paul's letters; this study reads Revelation 3:5 in its own setting without re-arguing it.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 5 — Separate Courts — Argues that Scripture names separate courts of judgment, among them the great white throne for the rest of the dead; Study 68 reads every passage that speaks of a book of names, including Revelation 20:11–15, without arguing a position beyond the text.

Study 79 — The Realms of the Dead

What this study answers. Study 79 asks what each passage that names Sheol, Hades, Gehenna or the lake of fire says, to whom it speaks, and what it leaves unsaid, reading the words in their own settings.

- Study 31 — The Judgments of Scripture — Read how Scripture's judgments are classified; this study reads the words for the place of the dead and the fire.
- Study 49 — The Resurrections of Scripture — Trace the resurrections Scripture names; this study reports Revelation 20:13 as written and builds no resurrection teaching on it.
- Study 68 — The Book of Life — Read the passages about a book of names; this study takes up only the clauses about Hades and the lake of fire.
- Prophecy & Mystery Commentary Series, Volume 5 — Separate Courts — Argues that Scripture names separate courts of judgment, among them the great white throne for the rest of the dead; Study 79 reports Revelation 20:13–15 and the other passages naming the realms of the dead as written, without arguing beyond the text.
- Parable Study — The Rich Man and Lazarus — The Rich Man and Lazarus reads Luke 16:19–31 under its own method, including the question of how the account is classified. Study 79 reports the passage beside the other words for the unseen world and does not classify it. Passage: Luke 16:19–31.
